THE CHICAGO CONVENTION.

The Fight for the Tomporary Organization.

Some offthe Proceedings of the Con-

Special to the Gazette. Cricago, June 4.- When the national republican convention was called to pr der by Senator Sabin, of Minnesota, at 12:25 yestorday, the convention hall contained a population of about 9,000. The scene was inspiring, as a matter of course but the surroundings were not as brilliant in some respects as they were four years ago. The convention hall is smaller by 3,900 than it was then, and beside that, there was an absence of some of the party leaders-such as Conkling and Garfield-whose very presence lent a special interest to the proceedings. But there are some great men in the convertion this year, and their voices were heard when the question of appointing a temporary chairman came up for considera-

A BOMB-SHELY. The national committee had selected Powell Clayton, of Arkansas, as temporary chairman. He was a brigadier during the rebellion, became what is called : "carpet-bagger," settled in Arkansas after the war, and was elected to the United States senate. He is an ambitious fellow, by many regarded as an unscrupulous politician, and has not the confidence of a large element of the republioan party. When Chairman Sabin was about to put the motion on Clayton's nomination by the committee, the anti-Biaine men made a motion to substitute the name of John R. Lynch, the colored ex-congressman from the famous shoestring district, of Mississippi. Then began the storm of words, and an unusually exciting scene at the opening of a national convention. George William Curtis, of New York, opened the battle against Clayton with a characteristic speech. Then followed that twentythree-year-old-millionairs reformer, who created so much attention in the New York legislature last winter by his gallast fight for reform in the city government of New York-Theodore Roosevelt. He is' an ambitious and a very presumptuous young man, and is bound to be heard in the national republican convention. Other speeches were made on both factions which threw the friends of the respective sides in wild excitement. The Arthur men demanded a call of the rolt on the question of temporary chairman. This consumed one hour and thirty-five minutes, and when it was done and the secretary had announced 432 votes for Lynch, there cam-

WHIRLWIND OF EXCITEMENT that Sabin's gavel could not stay. Men shouted, waved handkerchiefs, threw up their hats, mounted their seats and cheered themselves hourse. It was sometime before order and sobriety were restored and when ithe vote for Clayton was given at 387, the Lynch men broke out afresh. The result was a cold rebuke and a galling snub to the national committee. It was an unprecedented movement, but the Edmunds men were bent on "reform," and had the Arthur men at their back. They joined forces, and in some respects the vote may indicate that the anti-Blaine men are the stronger

The election of Mr. Lynch is a compli ment to the man and his race. He is a smali man, a dark mulatto, and was once & slave. He has been in congress six years and is a very good speaker. Clayton's defeat may be largely attributed to the fact that he left home an Arthur man —pledged to his support—but two days after his arrival in Chicago he was converted to Blaine, and the first installment of his pay was to be the tempora. ry chairmanship, His conversion was not quite as sudden and miraculous as that of Saul's, but it has astonishment and mystery about it.

The Wisconsin vote stood 10 Clayton and 12 for Lynch, but Mr. Sale, an Arthur man, voted for Olayton, simply on the principal that the national committee should be sustained.

There is no telling what the convention will bring forth in the shape of a nominee. The speculations are so conflicting that the outlook is full of uncertainty. At the present writing the anti-Blaine men hold the balance of power, but how long this will last, and what changes the next forty eight hours will develope, no man can foretell.

CONVENTION BULLETIN-No 1. Сиюлоо, June 4th-11:05 а. m.-Gener il W. T. Sherman has telegraphed ex-Senator Henderson saying that he would not accept the nomination if offered; or serve it elected.

The convention was called to order at 11:17 a.m. There is an immonse attendance. The weather is clear.

No. 2. A resolution that all delegates should bind themselves to support the nominees, whoever he may be, is creating a warm disonssion.

Circago, June 4th-12:27-The convention has just adjourned till seven o'clook this evening.

Interesting and Exciting Proceedings-The Committees --- Enthusiastic Blaine Men---Ramsey of Minpesota Boomed-Gresham Loyal to Arthur-The Talk of the Night.

Chicago, Julie 4,—Thesday was a good convention day. The weather was cool, but not sufficiently cool to be in the least unpleasant; though cloudy, there was no rain, and the sun frequently smiled benignabily on the crowds as they hurried hither and thither in the pursuit of business, politics or pleasure. And the business and pleasure of the day was politics. The work of the previous evening had bruthy thoroughly worn out the poople had pretty thoroughly work out the people at the different headquarters and for an hour or two in the sarly morning very few were to be seen. But when they appeared nour or two in the early morning very few were to be seen. But when they appeared the music was started just where it left off the night before, and the various grand swells expectant wore carefully cultivated with the view of startling the convention with a sort of earthquake in sembody's favor at the proper time. As the hour of meeting of the convention drew near the political atmosphere grow warmer and all the delegates "saiffed the battle from afar" and "hankered" for the fight. There seemed to be a general desire fight. There seemed to be a general desire for a test of strength as soon as possible be-tween the Blains and anti-Blains forces, and, as the event proved, an opportunity was early given the hosts to measure their power.

As early as 10 o'clock there was a surging crowd collected at the entrance to the convention ball, all of them desirous of obtaining passage through portals that to uinety-nine out of every hundred of them were closed. But still the crowd surged and still the "slick ones" attempted to "delude" the doorkeepers into granting them admission, and still the actic doorkeeper laid bare the scheme, guarded the doors against all but the favored few—comparatively—who were provided with the necessary pastohoards.

Among the first to arrive were the prominent men who had been invited to look on, and who occupied soats bolded the chairman's position. There were also many ladies, whose costumes lent a dash of bright color bere and there to the mass of neutral tint vention hall, all of them desirous of obtaining here and there to the mass of neutral tint presented by the dark clothes of the gentle-men. The familiar face of "Uncle Dick" Oglesby was there. Jerome B. Chaffee, who has just lest a hatful of money by the opera-tions of Ford. Ward, looked as though he yould be willing to lose another hatful if he could only see "Jim" Blaine get the nomina-tion. Ex-Sonator Bond, "Field-Marshal" Halstead and Minister Foster were to be seen in the crowd, and hundreds of others whose names are known from the Atlantic to the

There were some, too, who were not there men who have been looked for at Republican national conventions as surely as the commettee on resolutions. Roscoe Conking was not there; neither were William E. Chandler nor Charlie Foster; nor Garfield. The question presented itself to many, would there be one here like the murdered president, whose sudden capture of the convention whose sudden capture of the convention would be presaged by the enthusiasm with which he was received every time he made his appearance.

Among the delegates, also, there were many who are well known. Some have but recently made themselves a name among politicians; of such is Roosevelt, the young New Yorker. John J. O'Brien was there, the actute "practical" politician, whose "practicalness" is the honor of such men as George William Curtis, whose great abilas George William Curtis, whose great abil-ities as a writer, speaker and organizer have for the last half-dozen years or more been employed in the effort to secure civil service reform and less "shenanigan" in political

But the hour of assembly is at hand. The ologates' souts are all full. Stretching away to the front, right and left from the chair man's desk in the immense hall, is an ocean of faces. The band has been playing pa-triotic airs and the buzz of conversation has been drowned by the blase of the brasses But the music has ceased and the murmur of conversation died away, for the chair-man of the national committee, Senator Sabin of Minnesota, has advanced to the dosk, and the gavel rape sharply thereon, as the chairman declares the hour has come for business. Instantly silence reigns. The flutter of the flags and banners with which the hall is beautifully decorated can be heard, and the chairman proceeds to iddress the convention

He said: Gentleman of the Eighth National Republican Convention, the hour having arrived for the meeting of this convention t will now be opened by prayer by the Rav.

Mr. Bristol. Mr. Bristol then asked the blessing of the God of the universe over the work of the convention, and the members thereof. He onvention, and the members thereof. He asked that statesmanship and particism might control the action taken, and that the campaign may be concluded as belts a nation of God-fearing and country-loving people. At the conclusion of the prayer Mr. Sabin proceeded to make his opening address. He said Chicago was known as the convention city. It was the field of Republican victory. Here it was that that immortal patriot, Abraham Lincoln, was chosen; here the party chose that great chieftain. Gen.

the party chose that great chieffain, Gen. Grant; here it nominated that honored soldier, that great statesman, that representative citizen, James A. Garfield. [Cheers.] Every action of the party on this historic ground had been followed by victory. Having succeeded against its opponents on ing succeeded against its opponents on all former occasions, it was about to put its house in order for another conflict.
As a consequence of the vote adopted by the hast convention the present body was largely made up of men instructed by their own constituents, and it was therefore to be hoped that the voice of the people would be puissant that the voice of the people would be puissant in its deliberations. [Applause.] He closed with an expression of the hope for victory, and proposed for temporary chairman the Mon. Powell Clayton, of Arkansas.

This was the signal for the storm to begin, and it blew great guns for an hour or so. Heury Cabot Lodge, of Massachusetts, resand proposed to substitute the name of John R. Lynch, of Mississippi. He said they recognized the claim of the south, and therefore the bed proposed this second upmens one accepted. had proposed this second name as one ac-coptable to the Republican convention. Silas B. Dutcher, of New York, seconded the nom-Ination of Lynch.

DEMANDING RECOGNITION by the chair. Morrow, of California, dayrecented the raising of the question, and arred the endorsement of the committee's selection. Then, amid the din, the chairman made it understood that he recognized George William Curtis: The announcement was greeted with the wildest applause. Mr. Curtis said this was the supreme council of the purty. Representatives were met to open campaign of 1884. It had been unque:ti mably customary for the national commit-te to name the temporary chairman and for the convention to ratify it, but if the party as here represented so desired, it also, unquestionably, had the right to revise the ac-tion of the national committee in this matter and make a chairman of its own choosing. Stewart of Powsvivania, Pentiss of Missouri, and Thirston, of Nebraska, spoke for Clayton's retention, and Roosevolt, of New York, and Rood, of Maryland, for the election of Lynch. Carr, of Illinois, argued that the question to be considered was whether or not the ac-tion of the national committee had been wise, prudent, and in the interest of the Republican pridont, and in the interest of the Republican party. If the national committee had failed in this it should be set uside; otherwise it should be sustained. Was Mr. Clayton a fit man to preside temporarily? He was known to many of them, and they were unwilling that a stigma should be placed on his great and grand name (applause) by voting against the action of the national committee. They falt that it would not be proper to go before the country to sustain the candidate of a convention whose first act had been to put down a man who first act had been to put down a man who carried an empty sleeve. [Applause.] A delegate from South Carolina, advocated the nomination of Lynch, but without meaning thereby any reflection upon Mr. Clayton. As a southern Republican he wished the election

f Mr. Lynch. There was more discussion as to the mode of voting, but it was finally decided to call the roll of delegates and let each delegate answer as his name was called. The discussion was frequently interrupted by ap-plause, as some orator voiced the sentiments of a portion of the delegates, and the "hurrahs" were numerous and veciferous.

The votes of the delegates were recorded amid a great deal of confusion and applause.
When Maine was called Joseph S. Wheelwight created a ripple by voting for Lynch. Nearly all the other votes were recorded for Clayton. The greatest interest contered in New York. When that state was called Andrew D. Whita, Theodore Receavelt, John L. Gilbert and Edwin Packard voted for Lynch. George William Curris and Lohn A. Lynch, Goorge William Curtis and John A. King (alternate for John M. Crane) vote i also far Lynch. The other votes were divided between Clayton and Lynch. When the Lynch votes were recorded by Curtis, White, Fackard, and Gilbert the applause was immense and continued. On reaching Illinois surprise was caused by the reaching Illinois surprise was caused by the votes of Cullom, Governor Hamilton, and Burton C. Cook for Lynch. Ohio contributed twenty three votes for Lynch and an equal number for Clayton. The Pannsylvania delegates also voted very nearly equally for Lynch and Clayton. The Philadelphia delegates voted almost solid for Lynch; Rhode island voted almost solid for Lynch, and only one man out of the eighteen from South Carolina cast his vote for Clayton. Bellowing is the vote for Clayton. Following is the vote in detail by states.

The vote was concluded at 5:23. The chairman announced the whole number of votes cast to have been 818, out of which Lynch received 431 and Ciayton 337. Mr. Clayton moved to make Lynch's election unanimous, which was carried by acclamation, and a committee was appointed to conduct him to the chair. Mr. Lynch, with his escort, moved toward the chair amid tremendous applause, and was introduced by Mr. Sabin as temporary chair-man. He is a mon of small statue, not very lark, and wears mustache and goatee. Or mounting the stand he was greated with tremendous applause.

He spoke briefly with strong voice, and with the self-possession of a man who know what he wanted to say and knew how to

LYNOR'S SPEECH Upon assuming the chair Mr. Lynch was received with great applicate, and spoke as follows: "Gentlemen of the convention, I red that I ought not to say I thank you for he distinguished honor you have conferred toon me, and I do not. Nevertheless, from a standpoint that no patriot should fail to respond to his country's call, and that no loyal member of the party should fail to omply with the demands of his party, I vield with rejuctance to your decision and issume the duties of the position to which on have assigned me. Every member of this convention who approached maupon this subject within the last few hours knows that this position was neither expected nor desired by mo. If, therefore, there is any such thing as a man having bonors thrus apon him,' you have an exemplification of it u this justance. I wish to say, gentlemen that I came to this convention, not so much for the purpose of securing the defeat of any man or the success of any man, but for the purpose of contributing to the extent of my vote and my influence to make Republican success in November next an assured fact hope and believe that the assembled wisdom of the Republican party of this nation, through its chosen rep-resentatives in this hall will so hape our policy and will present such cardidntes before the American people as will make victory beyond the shadow of a doubt. I wish to say, so far as the different candidates for the presidential nomination are concerned, that I do not wish any gentleman to feel that my election by your vote is indicative of a nutring relative to a preference. dicative of anything relative to a preference of one candidate over another. I am propared, and I hope that every member of thi convention is prepared to return to his home with an unmistakable determination to give the candidates of this convention a loyal and hearty support whoever they may be Gentlemen of the convention, I am satisfied in my own mind that when we come before the people of this country our action will be ratilled because the great heart of the American people will never consent that any political party should gain an ascendency whose chief reliance for gain an ascendancy whose chief refinite 107 its support is a fraudulent ballot, and violence at the polls. [Applause,] I am satisfied that the people of this country are too loyal to allow a man to be inaugurated president of the United States whose title to the position may be brought forth in fraud, and whose garments may be saturated with the innocent blood of hundreds of his countrymen. I am satisfied that the American people will ratify our action, because they will never consent to a revenue system in this government otherwise than that which will not only raise the necessary revenue fo its support, but will also be sufficient to protect every American in this country. Gentle men, not for myself, but perhaps in obedi-ence to custom, I thank you for the honor you have conferred upon me." [Laughter tud applause.] THREE CHEERS FOR LYNCH. Frank Congres moved to strike out the words "at any time." Congressman Houk, of Tennessee, moved that the resolution be laid on the table, but afterward with frew his motion. Fierce then accepted the unendment of Conger, which was supplemented by a motion to refer to the committee on resolutions instead of order of business. George Turner, of Alabama, renewed the motion to lay upon the table, which was defeated by a viva-vece vote. A motion was then made to postpone, and this, too, was defeated by a postpone, and this, too, was defeated by a viva-voce vote.

The resolution was then carried. Leslie W. Russell stated that he had been asked to present a resolution from the 1 rish National loague relative to the subject of real estate

THE TEMPORARY PRESIDENT, John R. Lynch, is a colored man "fum of Mas'sip." If, in 1847, in Concordia parish, Louisiana, his slave mother had been told that the newly-born pickaniumy in her arms was to wield the gavel at a national convention of American citizens in Chicago and to give or withhold permission to a white man to speak withhold permission to a white man to speak it is safe to say that the prophet would have been advised to solor up before he made any further predictions. Young Lynch, after the war was over, noved up to Natchez, Miss., where he went into the photog a h business, having gotten an insight into the mysteries of the craft from the floating daguerreetype galleries which used from time to time to be run down the river and sold out in Now Orleans to the great from time to time to be run down the river and sold out in New Orleans to the great pecuniary advantage of the owners. In 1859 Mr. Lynch first tasted of the sweets of political life, being appointed to the office of Justice of the peace by Governor Ames. In November of the same year he was elected to the legislature, and was re-elected in 1871, being chosen speaker of the house of representatives in that body. In 1872 he made a successful run for congress. HOW THEY VOTE IS LOOKED AT. What the vote on temporary chairman means depends upon who the interpreter is for, Theanti-Blainemen insist that the selection of Lynch was a black eye for Blaine as

The scene at midnight at Blaine head-quarters at the Grand Pacific baffled descrip-tion. Thousands of adherents of the plumed knight crowded the specious ladie's ordinary and adjoining parlors. Amidst the most intense onthusiasm, Ton Bayne, of Pittsburg, Liberal Republican, mounted a chair and ad con before in the air read the nances of forty delegates who voted for Lynch, but are also pledged to vote for the man from Maine. After the reading a dozen or so of the delegates named rose to their feet and confirmed Bayne's statement,

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 4. Hawley, and perhaps a law Solutoring who will support other candidates, Blaimes strength shows up 387, or 23 short of a majority. Deducting from those the 39 Logan votes from Illinois, and say 20 more from the southern states, and we have Bisino's naked strength on first ballot at about 385 or 340 votes—just the number that has been claimed rotes—just the number that has been claimed for him by his managers. The test vote, therefore, has developed the fact that the field, excepting Logan, has combined against the leader, that the field is the stronger, and field, excepting Logan, has combined against the lender, that the field is the stronger, and that the Arthur game is now "anything to beat Blaine." Another feature was the dissatisfaction of the colored delegates with the Blaine people's vote in convention on the chairmanship. They claim that the Blaine strugth was all against the colored man, and were disposed to kicksomewhat thereat."

Several prominent Blaine men had a conference at night, at which the vote was discussed. Whitelaw Reid was present. Assuming Clayton to represent Blaine and Lyuch the opposition, they deduct from the S8 votes for Clayton the 6 from Connecticut, 25 Logan votes from Illinois, 4 Arthur votes from Virginia and 4 Logan votes from Missouri—3, This leaves the Blaine vote 349. To this they add 1 Blaine vote cast for Lyuch in Arkansas, 2 in Iowa, 2 in Michigan, 3 in Kansas, 1 in Wisconsin, 1 in New Mexico, 2 in Idaho, and 3 in Louisiana, 15 in all. Adding these to the 349, they make Blaine's strength 364. This is claimed as the development of the test vote in exposition half, and upon this the Blaine was been their conference. They do not in exposition hall, and upon this the Blaino men base their confidence. They do not however, claim more than 335 or 840 votes on however, claim more than 335 or 840 votes on the first ballot, their prospective Indiana losses on accounted Harrison's candidacy not being included above. By deducting from the 431 votes for Lynch the Edmunds vote in Mussachusetts, the Sherman votes in Olio, and the Edmunds and other anti-Arthur votes in the west, they reduce the president's and the Eminious and Orice the president's strength to 299.

The Times says: "The real test of Blaine's strength may be expected when the committee on createntials makes its report. The Blaine men will strain every nerve to beet the Mahone delegation. Of course, every delegate who really desires the nomination of Blaine above anybody also, will vote for the admission of the anti-Mahone delegates from Virginia, who are understood to be solid for Blaine. The real strength of the Arthur vote may perhaps come to a test on the Illinois centest, but it is doubted that there will be any serious fight except on the Mahone matter. The opinion that neither Arthur nor Blaine will be nominated was strenger than over, but only a few ventured to be positive about the prespects of any of the other candidates now in the race of likely to be brought out.

THE LATEST BOOM. At 2 a. n. a boom was spring at the Grand Puelle for Alexander Ramsey, of Mianesota. Handbills were prepared giving his history and political career in twenty lines. Forty thousand comics were scattered through the thousand copies were scattered through the convention hall and city.

SENATOR HARRISON has left Chicago, and has committed his in terests into the hands of his friends. There is some talk of the Illinois delegation uniting upon Senator Cullom should it become apparent that Logan can't win,

It is reported on excellent authority that Postmuster General Gresham sonta dispatch to John Nesson Brown, of Louisville, saying that the president would be gratified to have Brown second his nomination. a disputen from Boston says: Mr. Blaine said to a personal friend before he left the city that he did not expect to be nominated, and that the candidate would be a dark lerse. There is good authority the and that the candinate world the factority for the statement that the Blaine men will, at his request, support Gen. Sherman, if the nomination of the plumed knight appears impracticable.

A dispatch from Washington City says:

Two southern delegations and the chairman of a northwestorn state delegation tele-graphed that they would support Gen. Gresham if he would announce binsolf as a candidate. Gen. Gresham replied in positive terms that his name must not be used while President Arthur was in the field. Promi-nent Independents from New York and Masnent Independents from New York and Massachusetts visited Mr. Gresham and urged him to permit the use of his name as a candidate. He made the same reply to them, saying that so long as Arthur was in the field he would not permit it.

Every topic here is swallowed up in the Chicago convention. On the streets, in the hotels and at the capital nothing else was talked about. In the halis of legislation, business proceeded in a slow, humdrum mat ner, sanators and congressmen apparent) talking more interest in the bul-lotins and news disputches show-ing the progress of work in Chicago, treely furnished by the United Press, than in the business before them in their respective chambers. Vice President Edmunds called the senate to order at noon, as usual, with but four Republican and five Democratic sonators present. Soon atterwards it was decided that when they adjourned for the day to adjourn over to Friday. Educated was as importurable as usual, and his indifference to the unicome at Chicago is evidently not assumed. A group of senators were conversing pleasantly about the non-appearance of Senator Logan. "He looked sick yesterday," remurkod a Democratic schator. Private wires extending from Chicago to the executive mension, to Vice President Edmund's room in the senate chamber and to most of the departments, keep the Presi Jent, Edmunds, Sonators Sherman and Hawley, and Postmaste rGeneral Gresham hourly informed of the minutest developments at Eighteen United States senators are in attendance at the convention and a host of ropresentatives.

The Arthur mon are claiming that Blaine is already beaten, but if the vote on temperary chairman shows anything it seems to show that Arthur cannot be nominated without the aid of Edmunds and Shorman. They are full of hope and, with the addition of the Logan men, are thinking that when the "break" comes their respective candidate will make much profit.

No particular significance is attached to the selection of Honderson for permanent chairman by the committee on organization. though the Blaine men much regret that a lack of full attendance of the committee prevented the success of Galusha Grow. Henderson will not be untagonized.

will do toward stimulating judical research in our own country. With this view he has in troduced a bill in the senate affering a reward of $100,000 to any person of any untionality who discovers the true cause or germ of yellow fever, with any certain means of effecting its prevention, destruction or material medi-fleation, or who, without discovering the cause or germ of said disease, shall discover a certain and practical mode of effecting its provention and destruction, or material modification.

John C. Eno's Case.

MONTREAL, June 4.—John J. Curran, M. P., of Montreal, senior Canadian counsel for Eno, arrived here from Quobec. Ho comes here to look after the interests of his client. He says: "We know they cannot hold him at Quobec, but we have reason to bolieve that other proceedings are contemplated here."

at Quebec, but we have reason to noneve that other proceedings are contemplated here. The steps so far are merely taken to gain time. My client did not bring more than $1,000 into Canada with him.

and we can prove that it did not belong to the bank; so that all attempts to hold him on the charge of bringing stelen property into Canada must fail. I feel certain that Mr. Ene cannot be extradited, and that is the opinion of the best constitutional law-vers in the cite."

Judge Monk, of the court of queen's banch, nppears to be of the same opinion, and stated that he and his associates, in administering extradition cases, require most positive proof that they are within the scope of the act. Eno was brought before Judgo Chautteau at Quebec on a charge of bringing scolen money into Canada. C. P. Davidson, comsel for the Second National bank, failing to get the judge to consent to allow Ene to be brought to Montreal for examination, asked whom everybody knows as the successful manager of the Largest Hotel Enterprises

of America, says that while a passenger from New York on board a ship going around Capo Horn, in the early days of emigration to California, he learned that one of the efficers of the vessel had cured himself, during the veyago, of an obstinate disease by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Since then Mr. LELAND has recommended Aven's Sansaparilla in many similar cases, and he has never yet heard of its failure to effect a radical cure. Some years ago one of Mr. Leland's farm laborers bruised his leg. Owing to the bad state of his blood, an ugly scrofulous swelling or lamp appeared on the injured limb. Horrible itching of the skin, with barning and darting pains through the lump, made life almost intelerable. The leg became enermously enlarged, and running ulcers formed, discharging great quantities a extremely offensive matter. No treatment was of any avail until the man, by Mr. Leland's direction, was supplied with AYER'S SARBAPA-RILLA, which dilayed the pain and irritation, healed the seres, removed the swelling, and completely restored the limb to use.

Mr. LELAND has personally used Ayer's Sarsaparilla

for Rhoumatism, with entire success; and, after careful observation, declares that, in his belief, there is no medicine to the world equal to it for the cure of Liver Disorders, Gout, the effects of high living, Salt Rheum, Sores, Eruptions, and all the various forms of blood diseases.

We have Mr. Lucanh's permission to invite all who may desire further evidence in regard to the extraordinary curative powers of AYEM'S SARSAFARILLA to see him personally either at his mammoth Ocean Hotel. Long Branch, or at the popular Leiand Hotel, Broadway, 27th and 28th Streets, New York. Mr. Leland's extensive knowledge of the good done by this unequalled cradicator of blood poisons onables him to give inquirers much valuable information.

BULWER LYTTON'S BRIDGE. Where it Touches the Shores and the Great Columns in Midstream.

"What a beautiful bridge between old age and childbood is religion. How intuitively the child bryins with prayer and worship on entering life, and how intuitively, on contituing life, the old pan turns back to prayer and worship butting himself again side by side with the infant, "remarks Six E. Bulwer Lytton, In his "Strange Story."

Yes, but between its distant abuments the bridge of life has many high and awful arches through which the wild waters dash and roar in wrath and desolotich. Prayer and worship atone do of smeain terse. Natures solid rocks must lie mashaked beneath, and human art and skill must rear and solidity the structure overhead. God's will is best oxemplified in the law flash and the structure overhead. God's will is best oxemplified in the has made for the creatures whom He bas placif under their control. Neither the child's trustful "Our Father," nor the add man's "Ponget me not in the midst, of mine informities," will alter this by the weight of a single grain.

Beience and art first—then faith and prayer—firmities, will alter this by the weight of a single grain.

Beience and art first—then faith and prayer is the order of Heaven itself. Divinity heals through its agents, and those agents are the discoveries of man; and the vague announcements of prophetor electric. Is life a burden to you? Does time drag? Is your power to cope with life's problems and duties weakened? You are not well. Your plood is elongaish and tainted, perhaps, or same important organ is torpid and overworked. The fact may have taken the form of dryspersits, rheusaltiss, good, malaria, pains in the stomach, chronic handache, or any of a dozen other ills. PARKEETS TONIC will invigorate you as fresh air invigorates those who have bleen shut up in domp, fetid cells. At the village of Edgerton the cloud raised just enough to pass over the town without damage. Mr. Rumrill describes the storm as very sovere; the rain fell in torrents at the time and the roar of the wind cloud was distinctly heard some miles away.

fiard Times. We speak about a depression in trade and stagnation in business, as indicative of hard times; which means to the mor prices for his produce. A legitimate -Mr. George Irish returned home cause for hard times sometimes exists occurs. The country to-day, and for the undergoing an expression of general depression in business; and yet, the first man is to be found [who can name any but an imaginable reason for the state of things as they exist. To be sure, there are some localities, where the crops of last year were a partial failure and in such localities the shortage is felt; but the last years crop, on the whole, was good; and the prices as a rule were high. We talk of wheat at eighty centsbut forcet to say anything about tobacco at twenty cents, and all other products including live stock at good, mark ketable prices. We talk hard tames, and make ourselves believe it is hard times, and our neighbors defer to our judgment, and think and talk just as we do, and the result is a general depression in everything. If we would cultivate, as a nation, the bright side tof things, making the best of our surround ings, we would not only extract more enjoyment out of life as we go along, but the "hard times" periods would be less frequent, and the good times more abundant. Our country is rich to-day everything. An abundance of capital exists and is freely used for all branches of legitimate business; skilled and unskilled labor is in good demand, and at good wages, our farmers are in better circumstances than at any former period in the history of the country. Our monetary system is so per. feet that gigantic Wall street failures scarcely cause a ripple outside of their immediate circle. "Denies the Allegation."

The Recorder, of this morning, contains an article under the above caption, signed by a reverend gentleman of radical temperance proclivities, in which the writer attempts to deny some charges made by Mr. G. O. Smith, of Fort Atkin. son. Wis.

The charges referred to were contained in an address delivered by the clergyman at Fort Atkinson, some three months ago, in which he criticised the moral character of President Arthur. The article contained in the mornin sheet is intended to place before the publie just what the reverend gentlemen did say about the president in the address rebride and groom started immediately for ferred to. While the motive in writing it was no doubt prompted by a simple desire to be correctly quoted, if quoted at all, yet the propriety of publishing such an article on the eve of an important nomination, is to say the least, untimely and uncalled for-Whatever preferences the republican party may have for the men whose names stand out prominently to-day before the nation as candidates for presidential nomination, and however strong these preferences may be, the party unite in saying that President Arthur's administra tion has been pure, and his moral character is never questioned. The loyal republican press of the country will cheerfully support the nominee of the Chicago republican convention. Party loyalty is worth more and means more to the party just now than any sentiment which tends to tarmish the moral character of so prominent a candidate as President Arthur.

A Lawyer's Opinion of Interest to 211 J. A. Tawney, Esq., a leading attorney Winona, Minn., writes: "After using t for more than three years, I take great pleasure in stating that I regard Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption as the best remedy in the world for coughs and colds I have had, and invari-bly relieves the pain in the chest." A wise mother; one who always has a bottle of Downs' Elixir in the house to give the baby in case of croup. Sold by Stearns & Baker. Grand Ledge of Odd Fellows. The thirty-eighth annual session of the grand lodge of the I. O. O. F. of Wisconsin is now being held in the assembly chamber of the capitol at Madison, with an attendance of 350 to 400 delerates Grand Master Van S. Bennett, of Rich. land Center, presiding. At the session yesterday morning the time was occupied in conferring the grand lodge degree upon 117 delegates and filling the vacancies upon the various committees. In the afternoon the reports of Grand Treasurer Andrew Willard, of Beaver Dam, and Grand Secretary L. B. Hills, of Madison were submitted. From the former it is found that the aggregate receipts of the past year have been $14,720.89; total disbursements, $8,716.40; assets of 1883 $7,440.08; of 1834, $5,928. From the report of the secretary, it appears that the total receipts of his department are $6,711.71. Total relief granted, $24,-610.95. The membership of the order. which has been increasing steadily, up to Dec. 31, 1883, numbers 15,672 persons. During the past year 30 members have been expelled, and 148 have died. Old members of the fraternity report this to be the largest attended meeting of the grand lodge which has been held for years, and the members enthusiastic and hard workers. No regular programme has been prepared for work, the proceedings depending upon whatever matters individual members may present. This evening an informal sociable will be tendered the grand lodge by the Madison traternity, at the commodicus hall of of Hope lodge. Music will be furnished tories that can only be explained by a by Leuder's orchestra.

During the heat of the great contest now going on in the republican convention at Chicago, our readers should not forget the minetrel show at the opera June..... house to-morrow evening. It is one of the best organized troupes in Amorica, and is greated with full bouses wherever billed. The Baltimore News, of March 28th, says: "Loon & Cushman's minetrels are having remerkable success at Ford's this week, and deservedly so, for the enter-tunment they give is something altogether different from the conventional show. It has been a reproach to this form is something to the comic opera order, and is indeed superior to that furnished by some comic opera companies. The very highest class of burlesque is offered for this purpose the organization i strong in burleaque artists, particularly female impersonators. There is Engene, the most notable of all formerly with the Christy and Carneross companies; John Surridge, scarcely less well-known; Adams and Carey, Thompson, Hooley, standard the second of these artists the sketches go with immense spirit and unflagging fun. The vocalists are of the first rank and the leader of the orchestra is Mulialy, who for many years wielded the baton with the famous San Francisco Minettel."
